CHANG'S ARMY ROUTED

KENWORTHY SAYS JAPAN MAKES PEACE WORK FUTILE

Startling Charge In British House Of Commons

GENOA "USELESS"

Speaker "Intervenes" In Midst Of Accusations

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 4.—Replying to Commander Kenworthy in the House of Commons, Mr. Cecil Harmsworth said that he had had no information with regard to the Japanese Government's plans for the withdrawing of its troops from East Siberia. He had no knowledge of the alleged Japanese Government ultimatum demanding, inter alia, the right to keep military missions on the territory of the Far Eastern Republic.

Commander Kenworthy declared that it was useless to waste time at Genoa trying to make peace with Russia in the west when an associate Power was doing this in the east.

The Speaker intervened at this point.

London, May 4.—In the House of Commons yesterday, replying to Mr. L'Estrange Malone, Mr. Cecil Harmsworth said that the Government had not received the Soviet Government's wireless communication of March 29 supporting the Far Eastern Republic's protest of March 13 against the self-elected Merkulov Government at Vladivostok selling Russian property, declaring that the presence of Japanese military forces made it impossible for the Far Eastern Government to prevent the White Guard looting Russian national property and alleging that the Allied Consulates were arming counter-revolutionary bandits under the pretext of maintaining order. The British Government therefore did not propose to take any action.

Mr. Stauffer To Tell Of Christian Survey In Address Today

At 5:15 this afternoon, in Martyrs' Memorial Hall, 120 Szechuen Road, Mr. M. T. Stauffer, who has spent the last four years making a survey of Christian work in China, will repeat the address, using the colored lantern slides, which he gave Wednesday evening before the National Christian Conference.

Mr. Stauffer's survey forms the basis for much of the discussion before the Conference. The survey has just been issued, both in Chinese and in English and this is the first chance for the general community to hear Mr. Stauffer after the completion of the task. The meeting is being held in Martyrs' Memorial Hall rather than in Union Church because of lantern conveniences.

Tonight at 8:15, in the same hall, Dr. Timothy Lew, Dean of the Faculty of Theology of Peking University, will repeat his Conference address on "The Christian Church in China" before a Chinese audience.

ENGINEERS SLOW TO RESUME WORK IN OPEN SHOPS

Employers' Move Apparently Aggravates Trouble

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 3.—The engineering employers today opened their works to men willing individually to accept their terms.

There was a very small response, and on the contrary many of the men employed throughout the dispute went on strike.

All the works are heavily picketed.

Sir William Mackenzie, in opening the court of inquiry into the engineering dispute, endorsed from the outset the employers' contention that the men's proposal to suspend the lockout notices during the inquiry and the employers' action in opening the works to individual men, were irrelevant.

Sir Allan Smith, Chairman of the Managing Committee of the Engineering Employers' Federation, on behalf of the employers repudiated the allegation that they were aiming at smashing the trade unions. He intimated that they did not intend to call evidence.

Mr. Brownlie opened the case for the men, and emphasised that the unions did not desire to interfere with the rights of the management, if they were in accordance with the agreements.

Asks Boxer Fund For Education

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 4.—Mr. L'Estrange Malone in the House of Commons yesterday suggested that the remainder of the Boxer Indemnity should be commuted and applied half for the education of Chinese students in Great Britain and half in sending properly qualified and competent English persons to China to study and report conditions there.

Mr. Cecil Harsworth promised to bring Mr. Malone's suggestion to the attention of the committee which is considering the question of the education of Chinese on British lines in all aspects.

Tokio, May 4.—The cabinet continues to discuss the question of reconstruction, but up to the present no resignations have occurred.

According to reliable information, it is most probable that the reconstruction will be carried out without serious friction.

CO-OPERATION KEYNOTE OF CHINA CHURCH SAYS LEADER

Chinese Pastor Makes Prophecy To National Conference

DR. MOTT SPEAKS

Sees Christianity As World's Only Hope

The program of the National Christian Conference is wisely varied. Yesterday's morning sessions were of intense interest and in the afternoon the Conference separated into five sectional meetings, held in various parts of the city, to discuss in comparatively small groups the technical interests of those connected with work in "Village Christian Communities," in "Large Cities," in "Elementary and Secondary Education," in "Higher Education" and in "Medical Work." The evening meeting brought the Conference together again to hear an address by Dr. John R. Mott on the "Present Advantageous Position of the World Wide Christian Movement," which is reproduced elsewhere in full.

The morning session was made notable by addresses by Dr. T. T. Lew and Rev. R. K. Evans, both of Peking University. Dr. Lew opened his address as follows:

"Mr. Chairman, Right Reverend Fathers, Reverend Fathers, Fellow Christian workers, representatives of the Church of Christ in China, Ladies and Gentlemen:

"We are here today to celebrate the first conference of the Church of Christ in China. It is the first one because in the history of the Protestant Church in China this is the first time when a truly representative body qualified to represent the church as a whole has gathered together to discuss the problems of the church."

MAKES PROPHECY

Dr. Lew then proceeded to make a magnificent prophecy of the place of the Christian church in China, that it may from this time go forward into the great new epoch which this Conference promises for her. Among the most interesting of his points were the following:

"The Chinese Christian Church shall be a courageous experimenter in co-operation. She believes in co-operation because it is God's will that she should. God has raised apostles from various nations and sent them to China to establish His church in China. The cornerstone of the Chinese church is inscribed with names in many languages. God has a purpose. God desires that in China, through His church, the unity of the human family under His fatherhood shall be fully manifested. The Chinese church believes in co-operation because her own needs tell her that she must. The vastness of her task, the multiplicity of the demands, the need of diverse gifts claim every available force. Apart from co-operation she has no alternative. She must vigorously carry out Christian co-operation between missionaries and Chinese workers, through a revolutionary change, if necessary, of plans and policies under God's guidance. She must insist that racial prejudice, personal habits and denominational preferences be all sacrificed for the glory of God and for the service of our fellow men. She must insist that the young, the inexperienced, both among the missionaries and among the Chinese workers respectfully accept the wisdom and guidance of their seniors according to their needs. She must also entreat her experienced seniors to give adequate opportunity to the courage the audacity and to the energy of the Church's youth. And these, the seniors and the young, the experienced and the inexperienced, together must give unfettered freedom to experimen-

In a collision in the French Concession about 6:30 o'clock last evening between a car driven by Mr. A. Lagrange of 39 Woyside Road and a car driven by Dr. H. Fresson, Mrs. Fresson was seriously hurt when the car in which she was riding with her husband and Mrs. R. Pouplain was overturned. She is at St. Mary's hospital suffering with two broken ribs, a painful wound in the chest and severe bruises.

Doctor Fresson and Mrs. Pouplain were badly shaken up but escaped with bruises and Mr. Lagrange was not hurt though his car was badly damaged. A pet dog that Mrs. Fresson had with her in the car was killed.

The accident happened at the corner of Rue Lafayette and Rue Massanet. Doctor Fresson was driving a closed Ford car with the two ladies going west on Rue Lafayette at a point where the roadway is undergoing repairs and where a portion of it is closed to traffic. Mr. Lagrange, who was driving a Fiat touring car alone approached the corner along Rue Massanet.

Chicherin Wants Japanese Curbed

(Reuter's Service)

Genoa, May 3.—In replying to a letter from Signor Schanzer, President of Number One Commission drawing attention to the Soviet military operations in Georgia, M. Chicherin denies that there have been such operations, and urges Signor Schanzer to draw the Powers' attention to the military operations of Japan in the Far Eastern Republic.

These, he alleges, were enabled by the formation of revolutionary bands. Although the bands have been dispersed Japan is still maintaining her military occupation.

Fengtien General Heavily Defeated Near Capital And South Of Tientsin; "Debacle" At Changsintien, American Observers Report

LOSERS RETREAT BEYOND FENGTAI

Machang Reoccupied By Wu's Troops, Who Administer Sound Thrashing To Enemy There; Wu Personally Conducts Operations

BY JOSEF W. HALL

(Staff Correspondent The China Press)

Peking, May 4 (8:10 p.m.)—The rout of the Fengtien forces continues, with troops fleeing past Fengtai. The Christian Divisions of General Feng Yu-hsiang are scouring the Western Hill region and clearing it of stragglers.

Apparently nothing now can hinder the completion of General Wu Pei-fu's general plan to envelop the Fengtien forces and he says that he has "cut off the head."

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, May 4—(7:10 p.m.) Censorship has been instituted. General Chang Tso-lin has been defeated most completely in a battle south of Peking.

Peking, May 4.—General Wu Pei-fu brilliantly turned the Fengtien troops' right flank last night. The latter are retreating to Fengtai from Changsintien.

According to American official telegrams, the Chihli forces have reoccupied Machang and heavily defeated the Fengtien troops.

On the middle front, the debacle at Changsintien appears to be complete. General Wu Pei-fu personally conducted operations there.

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, May 4 (Urgent) —The Chihli troops have also captured Fengtai on the Peking-Mukden Railway. The Fengtien forces are now making a retreat in the Southeastern direction.

BY JOSEF W. HALL

(Staff Correspondent The China Press)

Peking, May 4 (6:30 p.m.)—Due to alleged lack of ammunition the Fengtien troops are retreating from Changhsintien toward Fengtai.

Neutral First Division troops stationed at the Eastern Gate this afternoon fired for three minutes upon a train from Tungchow to Peking, mistaking it for a contingent of straggling combatants.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tientsin, May 4.—It was reported early this morning that the Fengtien troops were falling back on Fengtai. The Chihli forces also claim to have taken Chinghaihsien, which is on the Tientsin-Pukow line ten miles north of Machang. This report, however, is not confirmed.

BY BERT L. KUHN

(Staff Correspondent The China Press)

Tientsin, May 3.—Chang Tso-lin, quartered in an unpretentious farmhouse near Chunliangchen, gave me an interview today for the China Press. He said:

"My aim is to unite China. The people have suffered too much from wars in the past. I hoped that Wu Pei-fu and Tsao Kun would agree to a peaceful settlement, but have been disappointed in both.

"If Wu and Tsao had co-operated with me the Northern troops easily could have conquered the South. My plan now is to abolish the old parliament and let the people elect new representatives, these to meet immediately and form a stable government."

The death of General Liang Chiao-tung, commander of the second Brigade of the first Fengtien division at Chiaotung has been confirmed at the headquarters of the Fengtien forces.

Tientsin, May 4 (3:05 p.m.)—Chang Tso-lin passed through Tientsin from Chunliangchen toward Peking this afternoon, his exact destination not being known, extreme secrecy marking his movements. The purpose of his trip is reported to be a personal inspection of the lines in the vicinity of Langfang. It will be his first visit to the troops at the front.

The Mukden general is traveling in a special train of eleven heavily guarded cars. Troops with machine guns cleared the station previous to the arrival of the train.

Mukden headquarters remain at Chunlianchen, and it is believed Chang will return there in a day or two. Heavily laden troop trains continue to pass Tientsin daily toward Peking, while scores of wounded soldiers are filling the hospitals in the Chinese city.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, May 3.—The struggle for Changsintien and Lukouchou was resumed with increased intensity this morning, the battle until noon going in favor of the Fengtien forces who, after heavy rifle and machine-gun and some artillery preparation swept across the plain beyond Changsintien, driving back their opponents for 3 miles and capturing many prisoners.

Immediately prior to the battle there was a small panic at Changsintien where a Chihli aeroplane bombed the vicinity of the station, killing at least two Fengtien soldiers outright. A stream of civilian refugees poured out of the town, leaving it almost deserted.

At ten o'clock the Fengtien artillery was disposed along the ridges across the railway line, South of Changsintien. The infantry were lying on the forward slope of these ridges and on the plain to the south with the Chihli troops facing them on the plain which was swept by a withering fire of smallarms.

The Fengtien troops advanced in open order for several hundred yards when the Chihli line began to break, the movement to the rearward soon becoming general. The Fengtien forces quickly pressed home their advantage and continued to push on, endeavoring at about twelve o'clock to extend their gains on the left but meeting with more resistance.

Examdnation of a batch of a hundred prisoners revealed the fact that they were Honanese troops of the poorest quality and had evidently surrendered to avoid further fighting. It is noteworthy that they were treated with comparative kindness by their captors.

(China Press Correspondence)

Peking, May 2.—A telegram received by the local railway station from Machang states that the Mukden forces there have been routed and the city has been occupied by the 26th Division. The traffic along the Tientsin-Pukow Railway can now go as far as Tsangchow, although small engines only are being used for the train between Machang and Tsangchow.

The rails that were torn up along the railway are being relaid under the supervision of Commander Pang Shou-hsin.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, April 28.—The French, Belgian and Dutch Ministers on the 22nd instant sent a Note to the Waichiaopu saying that the Lunghai Railway Administration had reported troop movements on that line and the requisitioning of railway materials. At Hsuchoufu troops were being concentrated which indicated important military movements in the region.

In these circumstances the signatories requested the Chinese Minister of Foreign Affairs to ask the responsible military chiefs to take the steps necessary to safeguard the lives and property of the foreign agents of the railway. Reservation was made with regard to the effect of such events on the Lunghai Raiway works now being constructed, on the financial condition of this enterprise in China and in Europe, and on various other contracts between the railway company and the Chinese Government.

The Note concluded by stating that full details would be supplied to the Government if they were thought necessary.

Chang Says He Will Call Halt If Wu Will

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, May 3.—Replying to a telegraphic address given on April 29 to the Chihli and Fengtien troops by President Hsu Shih-chang, ordering them to suspend hostilities at once, Chang Tso-lin yesterday communicated a telegram to the President as did Wu Pei-fu. The gist of Chang's telegram is as follows:

"It is Wu Pei-fu who took the lead in opening hostilities. Now that a large number of Chihli soldiers have been either killed and wounded or taken prisoner as a sequel to the battle for the last few days, I have made a proposal to both Tsao Kun and Wu Pei-fu for the suspension of fighting, but they have not replied to me as yet.

"I would gladly obey your order, but if Tsao Kun and Wu Pei-fu do not hear of your advice, it cannot be helped. It is therefore to be hoped that President Hsu will once more give strict orders to the leaders of the Chihli troops to suspend hostilities without delay. This is the only way in which the present chaotic situation in China can be saved."

Yesterday, Wu Pei-fu addressed a circular telegram to the Ministers of all Departments at Peking, enumerating 16 deadly sins alleged to have been committed by Chang Tso-lin against the people of China.

Following upon the announcement of Admiral Tu Shih-kwei that the naval division that he commands in conjunction with warcraft that lately sailed north from Shanghai would attack coastal section of the Peking-Mukden railway cutting off the Fengtien army's supply line reports received yesterday from Peking by the Chinese press here say that any naval operation of this kind has been forbidden by the diplomatic corps.

According to these reports the American, British and Japanese Ministers have instructed their respective naval commanders to prevent any attack upon the Peking-Mukden railway line by Chinese warcraft. It had been reported that the northen Chinese naval contingents supporting Wu Pei-fu would blow up the Peking-Mukden railway line near Chinwangtao, thus cutting off Chang Tso-lin's supply line and way of retreat.

The reports from Peking recite further that Mr. H. E. de Freitas, Portuguese Minister acting in his capacity of Doyen of the Diplomatic Corps called upon the Minister of Foreign Affairs on May 1 and notified that official that the Diplomatic Corps would insist upon full observation of the conditions of the Tientsin protocol of 1901 in the present conflict. The Portuguese Minister is quoted as having declared that the recent fighting in Lukiuchao, Chihli, constituted a violation of this treaty because Lukiuchao in within thirty li of Peking, the limit fixed by the treaty within which Chinese military operations may not be conducted. Military interference with tramic on the Peking-Mukden railway, the Minister is said to have declared, constitutes a breach of the same treaty.

This action of the Diplomatic Corps follows Admiral Tu's declared purpose actively to assist Wu Pei-fu by moving against the Peking-Mukden railway. Admiral Tu replying to the Diplomatic Corps is said to have declared that the proposed action of the Chinese navy in throwing its support to Wu Pei-fu was designed to hasten the termination of the present conflict and Admiral Tu said he purposes also to restore rail communication between Peking and the seaports.

All of the Chinese naval contingent that had been stationed at Shanghai under Admiral Chiang Tseng has now sailed northward to join Admiral Tu Shih-kwei's division and, according to a circular telegram Admiral Tu issued on May 2 these warcraft from Shanghai, including the cruisers Hai Chow and Hai Yung and the gunboats Li Tung and Chu Yue, had been ordered to sail to the Gulf of Peichihli there to cut the Peking-Mukden railway at Taku.

Reports received here yesterday state that three Japanese submarines that sailed from Tangku have arrived at Tientsin.

After the Chinese navy had divided to side with opposing factions, the Ministry of Navy appealed to the navy to remain neutral. In a manifesto issued to the Chinese admiralty in Shanghai, which took the lead in siding with Wu Pei-fu in the present conflict, the Ministry stated that the navy had never been partial to any clique or faction, so it was best to stay neutral during the struggle.

The local orgainisations in Chihli have also addressed a telegram to Admiral Sah Cheng-ping, asking him to avert participation of the navy in the warfare.

TO LAST 20 DAYS

Peking, May 3.—Presidential circles are of opinion that the hostilities will last at least 20 days or one month. In the meantime, Generals Chin Hua, Wang Nai-pin and Chang Ching-hui, mediators, are now doing their best in their joint efforts to end the strife between the contending factions.

Mr. Chou Tzse-chi, Acting Premier, with a view to discussing final measures for mediation, called a meeting this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, which was attended by the Ministers of all Departments and military leaders, now in Peking.

General Chin Hua and Wang Huai-ching this morning, notified the Cabinet that they have decided upon concrete measures for preventing the contending armies, troops in general and defeated troops from entering Peking. They have other plans for maintaining public peace in Peking.

Tokio, May 3.—Commenting on the situation in China, the Jiji, in the course of its leading article today, writes as follows:

"The dispute between Fengtien and Chihli has at length led to the opening of hostilities. At this juncture, it is most imperative for the Powers to refrain from assisting or impeding either side but to remain unconcerned spectators.

"Japan especially should observe her pronounced principle of non-interference and neutrality strictly and absolutely. It goes without saying that she should adhere to an unconcerned attitude to the last, so long as her rights and interests will come to be at stake.

"It is well and good, however, that the Japanese Government has of late recalled the few Japanese military officers who used to stay in Mukden as advisors of military affairs to Chang Tso-lin, because it is quite essential for Japan at this moment to clear away every factor that tends to incur suspicion on the part of other Powers.

"While it is to be hoped that the Powers will maintain their strict neutrality towards the hostilities between Chihli and Fengtien in North China, these two contending parties in China should be careful to observe strictly every item in the warning recently given to the Chinese Government by the Diplomatic Corps."

TUCHUNS AID WU

(Kuo Wen News Agency)

General Feng has sent a representative to Pengpu, An., to meet Tuchun Chang Wen-sung, and to Nanking to meet Tuchun Chi Shih-yuan of Kiangsu.

General Chao Ti, Tuchun of Honan, has posted two divisions of the late General Chiang Kuei-ti's troops along the Lung-hai Railway. Chao has sent three ying of cavalry (?) to aid General Wu Pei-fu.

Peking, May 3.—A telegram from Tsao Kun dated May 2 reached the Peking Government today, stating to the effect that it is the Fengtien troops that first opened the fire and not the Chihli troops.

SHANTUNG FIGHTS IF INVADE

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, May 3.—General Tien Chung-yu, Tuchun of Shantung, has of late addressed a circular telegram to the Ministers of all Departments and to public bodies throughout the country. The gist of the telegram is as follows:

"In view of the fact that in Shantung at present, various matters are being put into practice in connection with the Shantung Railway and the Bay of Kiaochow, Shantung should by no means be involved in the vortex of war now proceeding between Fengtien and Chihli.

"If the province should be turned into shambles and disturbances, it is evident that diplomatic problems that are detrimental to the country will accrue. It is reported that Chang Tso-lin is about to send a large force of the Fengtien troops to Shantung. If it be true, the Central Government is requested to give an order to Chang Tso-lin to give up such plan. In case Chang Tso-lin refuses to obey the order, I (Tien Chung-yu) will defend Shantung with force of arms."

SUN'S NAVY TO ATTACK

(China Press Service)

Canton, May 3.—The Southern naval squadron will seize the forts at Kiangyin, according to reports current here. With the fall of these forts, the Southern forces will have a clear passage by sea from Chungking to Shanghai. This action will be a deterrent it is said the Tuchuns of Kiangsu and Hupeh. The program calls for the Southern navy to prevent these factors from figuring as aids to Wu Pei-fu.

MUST EXPLAIN SUN'S DELAY

(Eastern News Agency)

Canton, May 2.—The mission of Dr. Wang Chao-ming who is going to Shanghai, it is alleged, is to have an interview with a representative of Chang Tso-lin, now in Shanghai and to explain to the representative the cause of the delay. Notwithstanding a secret agreement recently concluded between Chang Tso-lin and Dr. Sun Yat-sen that by April 10 military operations were to be simultaneously started, owing to the necessity of altering strategy on the part of the Canton Government, due to internal dissentions, the agreement in question cannot be carried out by the time specified.

Dr. Wang will also confer with Chang's representative as to particular measures in connection with the plan for the despatch of expeditionary forces to the North.

Owing to the ambiguousness of General Chen Chiung-ming's attitude and to the necessity of devising relief-measures in connection with financial affairs, Dr. Sun Yat-sen has now decided to stay at Canton for the present.

SUN URGES CHEN TO AID

(Kuo Wen News Agency)

Canton, May 2.—President Sun Yat-sen has despatched a very sincere letter to General Chen Chiung-ming urging him to command one line in the anti-northern campaign. General Li Lieh-chun and three brigades of his troops have arrived at the Kuangtung-Kiangsi borders to participate in the campaign against the north.

News has been received here that a severe battle is being fought at Kueichow. General Tao Chu-kang and 3,000 troops have fought their way to and captured Chenyuan, a large Kueichow city. Fighting is still being continued at Fuhweicheng. General Yuan Tsu-ming is retreating.

Co-operation Is Church Keynote

tation and the insistent impulse forward advance.

SERVANT OF PEOPLE

"The Chinese Church shall be a genuine servant to the Chinese people. She shall serve the Chinese race as a true conservative. She shall conserve all that is best with which God has endowed the race, constantly re-interpreting and re-evaluating the spiritual, intellectual and social inheritance of the race. She shall serve the Chinese people as a stalwart liberator, always looking forward with prophetic intuition, leading the Chinese race on toward God and toward all the improvements and progress to which God has destined this nation. Her organisations, her plans, her projects in every detail shall be genuinely Chinese, so that she shall not only be able to clear herself of being a foreignised institution, but shall be able also to make a genuine contribution to the world by making the Chinese interpretation of Christ her Head and her Ruler.

The keynote of all that Dr. Lew said was his statement "That the church shall teach her members to agree to differ but resolve to love."

Professor Evans talked on "What shall be the foreigner's response to the challenge involved in the establishment of the Chinese Church." He claimed that this depended fundamentally on how much foreigners working with the Chinese regarded China as a nation.

MIRACLE OF HISTORY

"We witness today one of the supreme miracles of human history; one of the oldest nations in the world is being born again. A nation that has been held for centuries under the spell of the world's most impressive classical tradition; that has been cheated of its youth for more than a thousand years and more, is today recapturing its youth. It remains to see whether it will drink the 'cup of devils' or whether it will receive from the hand of the Chinese church the 'chalice of the grapes of God.'"

Professor Evans interpreted the relation of missions to the new church as far less a matter of ecclesiastical control than of their being simply a medium of the love and faith of the Christian church of the West to the Christian church of China. His address gave new meaning to the old prophecy with which he closed, and in which he found implied the relation of the pioneer missionary forces to the church which is even now coming into being in China and which has in it enough vitality to govern its own development: 'For unto us a Child is born, unto us a son was given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder.'

A CLEAR UNDERSTANDING

Among the points brought out in the discussion following these addresses were the desirability of having a clear understanding on the part of the Chinese of how much money is given to mission work by the West and just where it comes from; the desirability of far more fellowship between missionaries and Chinese workers and the approach of the time when Chinese must go to the West to interpret the best of their own religious life even as Westerners have come here to bring Christianity.

Today's meetings will be given almost entirely to discussion of the proposed formation of a National Christian Council to take the place of the China Continuation Committee, and in addition be directly representative of the Churches of China by whom it shall be elected. In the evening several talks will be given on aspects of evangelism, among them a talk by Mr. Shen Wen-ching on Christian Work among soldiers and by Mrs. H. C. Mei on Making the Home Christian.

Dr. Mott's address, delivered last evening before the Conference, follows:

"The world-wide Christian movement is in an advantageous position today because of the world's admitted extremity. Never before have other powers and influences so fully shown their inadequacy as during the recent years. Within a decade we have seen pillar after pillar of our so-called modern civilisation break and fall in pieces. How true this is of diplomacy and statecraft both before, during and following the war.

"The economic and financial structure reared through generations at incredible cost fell apart in a day and has not since been re-established. Some of the most powerful traditions and social sanctions, which held firmly tens of millions, have relaxed their grasp, and whole peoples are being tossed on tempestuous seas without adequate guidance. Governments supposed to be among the most securely established have fallen. The military and naval power of the nations, never before employed on such a colossal scale, has demonstrated its complete inadequacy. Education as most widely understood in the modern age has served to make nations more dangerous than ever. International conferences and understandings are showing their insufficiency by themselves, for we recall that leaders at the Washington Conference have appealed to the leaders of religion to ensure the support needed to give true effect to its findings.

CONFIDENCE WITHDRAWN

"Thus we might say that the past eight years have constituted an almost infinite process of exclusion—serving as they have to withdraw the confidence of mankind from one after the other of the traditional supports of nations and of society. At such a time of uncertainty and confusion what a supremely advantageous position the Christian movement occupies in being able in lands like China to direct the gaze of mankind to the One Who is the same yesterday, today and forever—the Lord Jesus Christ, never so unique, never more necessary, never more sufficient. In these recent fateful, tragic years nothing has taken place which has invalidated a claim ever made by Christ. Never has there been such a chance to put the Christian movement in its central place in the thinking, planning and relationships of men. Against the black background of disorder, destruction and chaos so widely prevalent in parts of the East and of the West, we see the cause of Christ as a vast, world-wide, peaceable, constructive, vitalising force for the stabilisation, reconstruction and regeneration of the world.

DOORS NOW OPEN

"The Christian movement holds a position of advantage today because of the unprecedented openness of the world. In all the Christian centuries there has been nothing like it. In a generation of almost ceaseless travel which has taken me at intervals to all the principal battlefields of Christianity, I have seen nothing comparable in point of opportunity to the present. There may have been times when in certain parts of the world the doors were as wide open as they are today, but one makes bold to say that never in Far East, in Near East, in all parts of Africa, in Latin America, and even in Europe, were the doors so wide open to the friendly and constructive ministry of Christianity in its purest form, as they are today. It would be difficult to name a field which at this time is inaccessible to our great mission. On the ocean I asked myself, 'Why is it that God has at once and the same time thrust upon the mind, the conscience and the of the Christian Church the claims of an entire world?' I trust that the answer on which my mind rested is the right one, and that is that God in His omniscience piercing beneath the surface, recognises that there is now living a generation of Christians with whom may be trusted a situation which is literally world-wide. It is reassuring that we have a religion able to deal with an entire world, for a religion not able to deal adequately with the entire world is not able to deal adequately with any one nation. What an advantage therefore, it is to the Christian forces in China that they are part of a movement able to afford this world-wide demonstration!

WORLD IN MOLTEN STATE

"A plastic world presents to the world-wide Christian movement a wonderful advantage. The Titanic furnaces or forges which have been working overtime in recent years have made the world molten. There seems to be no exception. If someone had asked us ten years ago to name the country in Europe which would be the last one to become plastic, doubtless most of us would have replied, 'Russia.' And yet Russia today is possibly the most plastic of the nations. Therein lies its grave danger to the world, and therein lies its infinite promise. Soon this molten world will become fixed or set like plaster on the wall. The central question thus thrust upon almost every nation, and most emphatically upon China, is, 'In what moulds shall the new world set? Shall they be the ancient moulds which have disappointed us and crumbled at our feet, the moulds of materialism, militarism and crass selfishness; or shall they be the moulds of idealism, altruism, co-operation and constructive service—in other words, truly Christian moulds?' How true it is that old things are passing away. All things may become new; not as a matter of magic or of chance or of drifting, but because the leaders and members of the Christian movement, lay and clerical, shall rise up in their unity and might and give God's own answer to the question.

THE WAR'S EFFECT

"When people ask me whether the effect of the War on the world-wide expansion of Christianity will be bad or good, I answer that it all depends on what we do now. The present is a time of great break-up in all parts of the world. Old inertia is giving way. Change is in order and is expected. All plans, policies and methods the world over are being reconsidered and restudied. This is absolutely necessary. It is true of the most conservative peoples and organisations. What is not possible at such a time! How advantageous it is to the world-wide Christian movement that at the very time its opportunity has so enormously widened and at the very time when the demands and expectations regarding it have been so greatly augmented, it is possible for it in the different nations to recast or reshape its program and policy and to devise new and better ways and means. Herein we see the timeliness of the National Christian Conference of China. On such a day in the unfolding of God's plans we should pray mightily that He may raise up men, and groups of men, of vision, of adventure, of constructive ability, and truly creative power.

"The rising tides of new thought and of social passion which are today surging in the minds of the rising generation in East and West, afford an added advantage to a movement built around the divine personality and teachings of Jesus Christ. Everywhere the world traveler goes today he is made vividly conscious of the thrill of a new intellectual life and social consciousness. I venture to say that the present is the most alert generation intellectually, certainly of all the modern centuries. Be that as it may, would anyone question that it is the most inquiring generation? China is not alone in this respect.

NEW THOUGHT CURRENTS

"The recent Conference of the World's Student Christian Federation in Peking revealed clearly the fact that the students and other classes of young men and women in lands like India, Japan, the Near East, Germany and Russia are being profoundly moved and influenced by new currents of thought and feeling. But in China we find the most remarkable manifestation. Well has its New Thought Movement been characterised as the Renaissance Movement, although even his characterisation is inadequate because apparently the movement in China today transcends the movement which so influenced the intellectual life of Europe in the Middle Ages, in numbers of people involved, in range and manifold character of manifestations, and in the instruments and processes now available and in use for furthering the ends in view. All currents of thought and feeling which are moving the Orient and Occident are now pouring in confusion across the mind of the New China. One sees on every hand a bewildering ferment of new ideas. It seems to be more than a mere intellectual awakening. It amounts almost to an intellectual revolution. One finds evidences that it has created keen dissatisfaction with things as they are. It has led to a questioning of every source of authority and every dogma. It is more than a seeking for new knowledge. It represents in countless cases a changed point of view, a new mental attitude. New methods of research are being applied to all kinds of subjects. The traditions, practices and customs honored by time, if they do not meet the exigencies of the day, are cast aside. All this presents to the Christian movement in China and in other lands not only a real problem but likewise a marvelous opportunity.

CHALLENGES ADVANTAGEOUS

"The challenging of Christianity along with all religion affords opportunity for a fresh and convincing apologetic. How much more advantageous to the Christian religion such a challenge is than the old state of indifference which obtained in so many quarters. Moreover, it may be made to encourage greatly the study of the Christian religion. It likewise helps to prepare the way for Christ, because sooner or later the questionings and longings of the New Thought Movement will lead to a study of the great source of moral energy. The social interest and concern manifested by this movement afford a rare opportunity to reveal Christianity at its best as a great individual and social, superhuman, transforming power. It should stimulate the entire Church to prepare preachers, teachers and writers equipped to satisfy this unpar-

S'HAI TENNIS ASS'N PLAN ANNUAL CHALLENGE ROUND FOR BIGGER CHINA PORTS

Hongkong, Hankow, Tientsin And Peking To Be Invited

An annual Far Eastern challenge tennis round, planned after the conditions controlling the Davis Cup play will be arranged for with play commencing this year, provided the invitation of the local Lawn Tennis Association to be extended to Tientsin, Peking, Hankow and Hongkong is accepted. The proposal was made at the annual general meeting of the association held last evening in the Cathedral School and was adopted unanimously.

A special sub-committee was appointed to work out the details of the Far Eastern Tennis tournament, and after these details are presented to the new committee and approved the invitations will be sent to the four outside ports.

The scheme of play, as far as possible will be identical to the rules controlling the Davis Cup Matches. The latter regulations in fact are to be used as far as practical for the tournament. The play will be staged at one port each year with all matches to be played at the same time. The port in which the tournament is to be held will be selected by drawing. Each city will have its regular turn at entertaining the visiting teams. Expenses as far as possible will be paid by the home association from the gate receipts. Messrs. A N. George, H. Toussaint and Secretary M. B. Brown of the local association were appointed to draft the formal proposal which will be included in the invitation.

ARRANGE SCHEDULE

The association meeting, at which Mr. George presided with Secretary Brown supporting, arranged a tentative schedule for the year's tennis, with one marked innovation: the placing of the men's singles and doubles tournaments for the early months of the season, and a possibility that the ladies' events will be put over to the end of the season, thus reversing the usual times of the year for the playing of these matches.

The schedule follows:

Mixed Doubles, from June 1st.
Men's Singles, from June 15th.
Men's Doubles, from July 1st.
Hong Doubles, from July 15th.
League Play, Aug. 1 to Sep. 15th.

September 1st and October 1st were suggested for the ladies doubles and singles respectively, though it was later decided to leave the subject open for the new committee to consider. It is understood that lady tennis players will be questioned as to their choice of dates, and the majority of ladies' votes to decide the point. It was also voted to request each of the clubs forming the association to do their utmost to encourage their ladies to take a more active interest in tournament playing.

After some discussion, the association voted for the adoption of the Slazenger ball for all championship play. The resolution was urged to insure uniformity in play as against the old system which forced competitors to enter tournament and championship games playing strange balls. The resolution requires "Slazenger, 192: balls, in tins of three."

Judge Skinner Turner was re elected as president of the Association, Mr. C. C. Humphries was selected vice president, and Mr. M B. Brown re-elected as secretary and treasurer. The annual report reviewed last season's play, and showed a fair financial condition.

CLAY BIRD CLUB REPORT SHOWS GOOD CONDITION

The annual report of the Shanghai Clay Pigeon club which will be presented to the membership on Monday at the annual general meeting shows the organisation in thriving condition, and planning for a strong bid for support from Shanghai sportsmen in 1922.

Financially the club is shown to be sound, having had its funds augmented last year by presentations from the late Shanghai Gun Club of the balance of its funds in cash of $730.53 as well as two debentures of Taels 500 each Shanghai Municipal Council 5 per cent loan of 1911, and also from the members of the late Clay Pigeon Club of their balance amounting to $794.71 in cash. A balance of $2,210 is carried forward on Dec. 31, 1921 in addition to the Taels 1,000 in S. M. C. debentures.

The club has in stock 10,000 cartridges with a further supply of 60,000 ordered, six thousand three hundred birds with another good supply already ordered, and a fair supply of Leggett traps, with some new Foochow traps being ordered.

The membership at present is 42 shooting members and nine non-shooting members.

Secretary and Treasurer A. P. Nazer retires from office in favor of Mr. A. E. Stewart. A review of the club's successes in 1921 competitions, particularly its win over Tientsin for the Murray trophy conclude the report.

SPINKS, OLD TIME BILLIARD CHAMP, TO VISIT S'HAI

William A. Spinks, who twenty years ago was one of the leading professional balkline billiard players of the world and who even today is one of the best players in the game, will arrive on the Pacific Mail liner Golden State tomorrow from Manila.

Years ago Mr Spinks followed the game professionally and was closely connected with the leading stars of the world. He is the founder of William A. Spinks and Co. of Chicago, manufacturers and dealers in billiard supplies, but of late years has been in the oil business in California. He is making a pleasure trip, accompanied by Mrs. Spinks and their niece, Miss Alice Arvidson of Denver, Colorado. Miss Arvidson is a soprano soloist of note.

Mr. Spinks holds a world record for high run in 18.2 balkline billiards, although it was not made in tournament play and is therefore not listed in the official records of the game. Daly's book on billiards, however, lists this run of 1,010 made in 1912. He played with such stars as Willie Hoppe, Ora Morningstar, Frank Ives, the young and older Schaefer and in fact most of the world stars. He is the godfather of young Jake Schaefer, the present world's champion, and tells of when he held little Jake in his arms.

California Tennis Men Coming Here

Berkely, Cal. May 3.—Four University of California tennis players will sail on the Hoosier State on May 13 to take part in several tennis tournaments in Japan. It was said today that there was also a possibility that they would continue on to China after the Japanese invasion, and play in Peking and Shanghai.

The University Glee Club, which is sailing on the same steamer, includes seven members of the university baseball team and several ball games will be arranged for the aggregation in Japan.

GOLF ASS'N PROGRESSES

Thirteen Far Eastern golf clubs have agreed to join in a Far Eastern Golfing Association, which is planned to join together all clubs in the Orient. Shanghai, Amoy, Penang, Selangor clubs have already signified their willingness to come into the association, which is being organised by the Royal Hongkong Golf Club. It is expected, when all acceptances are in to hold Far Eastern Golf championships.

Middle Schools To Hold Track Meet

Six Shanghai Middle schools will hold an inter-school athletic meet tomorrow at the Public Recreation Grounds, West Gate. Hankow Baseball Club To Go In For Interport Games

At the pre-season meeting of the Hankow Baseball Committee it was voted that the club should go in for interport matches this year, with Shanghai and the 15th Infantry nine from Tientsin mentioned as most likely to be given invitations to visit the river port. Hankow until this year has confined its baseball to games with naval nines. An increasing interest in the game in a growing community was given as the reason for the playing of interport matches in Hankow.

S'hai College Holds Home Meet Sports Tomorrow

The Shanghai College Home Meet, to be run off tomorrow, includes twenty-three events. Several of the items have been divided for participants into junior and senior features.

The meet, which is the annual home field day, at which the year's records on the local grounds are registered, has been moved up two weeks this spring to aid in picking those to go to the intercollegiate meet the Saturday following at Nanking.

The list of men for Nanking, however, will probably be modified by the showing new men make during the week following the Home Meet and preceding the Nanking contest. Four ribbons in each event are to be given this year in the local, so that one more man than in former years will place among the prizes.

The meet is open to the public. Part of the program, including the 100-yard dashes, the low hurdles and the mile, will be run in the morning. Most of the events, however, are scheduled for the afternoon.

ROWING CLUB IN ANNUAL MEETING REVIEW BIG YEAR AND PLAN FOR NEW SEASON

R. L. Sargeant Selected A: Captain, W. E. Sauer As Vice Captain

The annual general meeting of the members of the Rowing Club was held last evening at the boathouse, when the Captain (Mr. J. J. Evans) presided over an attendance of some 50 active oarsmen and swimmers. The notice convening the meeting and also the minutes of the 1921 annual meeting having been duly read by the hon. sec. (Mr. T. W. R. Wilson), the chairman addressed the meeting, in part as follows:

"We started the year with a total membership of 282. 28 being absent members. Of these 36 were struck off leaving 246 members. During the year 118 joined and we closed with a membership of 340, 50 of whom are on the absent members list.

"The many oarsmen of home experience who have joined this year will, I feel, raise the standard of rowing and create much keener competition.

"Oarsmanship and keenness in rowing are what your committee have looked for and yet there cannot be denied that in the minds of some the regrettable idea of social position is looked upon as a standard for membership in the Club. It would be well if at this meeting opportunity were taken for the members openly to express their views on this question for the benefit of your incoming balloting committee. There are gentlemen and sportsmen in every walk of life who as oarsmen would be a great help to this club and they should be given the opportunity to take their places in our crews. From many angles this question may be beneficially discussed and I trust you will take an opportunity to express the general feeling of the entire club membership on this point.

SWIMMING POPULAR

"The swimming bath was as popular as ever last summer and our teams retained the Johnston Shield for water polo and again captured the Hongkong Cup and the team race. It is our hope that more of the Shanghai Championships will be held by our swimmers this coming season and I have in view a very able coach who I trust

SCALP ECZEMA

Scalp Eczema is a common Spring Season complaint. Unless properly treated and promptly checked the hair roots will become infected, resulting in loss of, or an unhealthy appearance of, the hair.

'GERMOL' is a most valuable remedy for scalp eczema, an application night and morning for a few days being sufficient to effect a complete cure. Thereafter an application once or twice a week will keep the scalp healthy and prevent that irritation which is so common in the hot weather.

Hair growth is most active during the Spring Season, and now is the time to ensure the scalp being in a perfectly healthy condition. If the scalp is free from disease the hair will grow luxuriantly, and regain its youthful appearance. If there is any trace of Dandruff 'Germol' should be used daily until the scalp is perfectly free of this unpleasant disease. You can't have Dandruff if you use 'Germol.'

Notes On The Situation

A 45-pound bomb was dropped by a Chihli airplane on May 1 at Fengtai. It fell in a wheat field and failed to explode. Another plane dropped a second bomb at Changsintien on May 2, and killed a cavalryman.

The flags of the Mukden forces are combinations of red, yellow and blue to designate the union of China Proper, Manchuria and Mongolia. Those of the Chihlilites are red to show that they are fighting for the freedom of China proper.

General Wu Pei-fu informed the Diplomatic Corps on April 30 that his troops would not fight within 30 li of Peking, and would not enter Peking after his victory over the Fengtien army.

General Wu has moved his family to Paotingfu to show his confidence in the outcome of the present war.

Accompanied by foreign and Chinese newspaper correspondents, General Wu arrived in Fengtai on May 3 to inspect his troops.

The Red Cross contingent from Tientsin has not yet left for the field on account of the failure of confirmation by Chang Tso-lin.

Members of the American staff of the Pei-Yang University have been instructed by the American Consul-General at Tientsin to remove from Chinese territory into foreign settlements.

General Wang Shu-ching, commander of the Eighth Division, has offered to lead a brigade of his troops to fight Chang Tso-lin. The offer was made to General Tsao Kun, Wu Pei-fu and Hsiao Yao-nan.

Four hundred thousand rounds of ammunition are required by the Chihli forces every day, according to the Chinese press.

General Feng Yu-hsiang, the Christian Tuchun of Shensi has addressed a telegram to the Y. M. C. A. at Hankow, asking for the enlistment of a score of nurses for the First Aid Corps organised by the wives and sisters of the Shensi military officers.

According to the Dah Tong News Bureau, the internal war up to the present has involved only local clashes, no orders have yet been given for a general military operation and President Hsu still hopes to avert sanguine combat by mediation. It is possible that both may agree to an armistice for a few days, the Bureau states.

An urgent telegram from Tuchun Chao Ti of Honan stated that the Jehol troops under Chiang Teh-sheng have been mobilised and are moving into the region of the Lunghai Railway. Since he has lost complete control of the unit, Chao did not consider it expedient for him to hinder its movement. It is understood that Chiang was instructed by Chang Tso-lin to check the progress of the 11th Division under the command of General Feng Yu-hsiang, who is starting for Hsuchowfu.

The British Volunteers in Tientsin are standing by for emergency. The police have rejected the proposal to organise a Chinese Volunteer Corps.

It is estimated that 5,000 casualties have occurred during the present fighting, according to Chinese reports, the loss by both sides being about the same.

will be welcomed by the swimmers. The alteration to bye-law 14 passed at our last annual meeting was a success and the bath was very much appreciated by the members and their families on the Mixed Bathing nights during the Summer.

"Basketball proved the chief attraction of the gymnasium season and our hearty congratulations go to the Strokside team who like good oarmen set the pace for both the Bowside and all others in the boat. The Committee ruled, although divided in opinion, that only home games of recognised teams composed of members of the club were to be played on our floor, but I was glad to see that ruling broadened to the possibility of a successful winter's sport and I look forward to an alteration by this next year's committee."

The report and accounts having been duly passed, the following committee for 1922 were elected:

Captain: R. L. Sargeant.
Vice-Captain: W. E. Sauer.
Honorary Treasurer: J. A. Moller.
Honorary Secretary: E. T. Nash.
Committee: A. K. Brown, L. G. Day, R. L. Evans, J. H. Ford, D. M. Graham, W. Moore, B. T. Phillips and F. W. Schlobohm.

It was decided to send an order to the value of some £60 for prizes to England. The purchase of 4 sets of oars and 5 sets of sculls was authorised: but the question of buying new boats was left over until such time as further details are obtainable. about the renewal of the club's lease of its present premises.

Mr. D. M. Graham was voted with acclamation an Honorary Member of the club.

A proposal to show on the club boards the names of all the members of winning crews instead of merely showing the stroke as at present was defeated and the old practice is to be adhered to.

Mr. C. J. Doughty and Mr. H. J. Faers acted as scrutineers and Mr. Schlobohm was in charge of the blackboard.

A vote of thanks to the retiring committee, proposed by Mr. J. A. Moller brought the proceedings to a close at 7:50 p.m.

Chinese Is Stabbed To Death In Fight; Four Are Arrested

As a consequence of a fight between a Cantonese and a Kompo man, a Chinese named Loh Dah was fatally stabbed during a general fracas in the Ming Wei alleyway, off Seward Road, late Wednesday night.

Earlier in the evening the original belligerents, after a scuffle, were brought into Wayside police station and were cautioned and released. At about 10:45 the fight was resumed, with several supporters of each of the principals. The police arrested two men on the scene, one in possession of a bloodstained dagger and the other carrying a hammer on which also were bloodstains. A third man was arrested in hospital, whither he had gone to have stab wounds dressed. A fourth man in custody is alleged to be the Kompo man who, with the Cantonese, started the trouble. The Cantonese has not yet been arrested.

An inquest was held yesterday and the men in custody will come up for trial next Thursday.

WATCH THE FRUIT YOUR CHILDREN EAT.

Whilst most ripe, sound fruits are good for children there is danger in fruit which is green, over-ripe or damaged, among the least of the evils to be feared from such fruit being acute indigestion, diarrhoea and worms.

When you have reason to suspect that your child has eaten fruit of a doubtful character the best course is to administer a dose of Baby's Own Tablets at once, for these Tablets quickly but gently cleanse the stomach, and can be given with absolute safety even to the youngest or most delicate infant.

Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, are also a specific for teething troubles, constipation, colds and croup. They bring calm, natural, health-giving sleep and promote regular development. From chemists, or direct and post free at 60 cents the vial from Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Colorful Scene At Opening Of Plenary Session At Genoa

(Reuter's Service)

Genoa, May 3.—The streets were lined with cavalry with drawn swords, infantry and carabinieri and were crowded with sightseers on the occasion of the opening of the plenary sitting of the Economic Conference at the Palazzo San Giorgio.

Sir L. Worthington-Evans, in moving the adoption of the Financial Commissions report, declared that the discussions had resulted in an agreement which he hoped would be a guide to the code to be followed, like the Laws of Justinian.

The essentials of the "Genoa code" were the limitation of paper currency, the fixing of a gold parity, economy in the use of gold and co-ordination of credit—a policy which, he predicted, would disperse the impediments to financial and industrial intercourse.

Some cheers were raised at the conclusion of a statement by M. Chicherin, delivered in a moderate tone, detailing objections to certain resolutions, but adding that he would advise his government to carry out the decisions of the Conference within the limits of its power. He chiefly objected to some of the work of the Conference being delegated to the League of Nations which Russia did not recognise.

Dr. Walther Rathenau said that the trade of the world must be doubled before it would be possible even to pay the interest on war debts. This was impossible while the nations were flying at one another's throats.

All the Finance Commission's nineteen recommendations were then adopted.

ALLIES AT GENOA READY WITH RUSS MEMORANDUM

Document, Long In Making, Contains Thirteen Clauses

(Reuter's Service)

Genoa, May 3.—The long-expected Russian memorandum has been completed and was despatched by a fast motor-car at five o'clock this morning to be delivered to the Soviet delegates at Santa Margherita.

The document consists of thirteen clauses, introduced by a preamble, mentioning the proposed measures of reconstruction, including an international consortium.

The principal clauses stipulate that Russia should recognise her public debts and obligations, while the creditor Powers at present should not claim advances they made during the war.

Provided the Soviet Government agrees to renounce its counter-claims, the Allies offer to submit to their respective parliaments measures for reducing the Soviet's debt.

The Soviets must restore the deposits Rumania made to Moscow during the war.

(China Press Service)

Genoa, May 3.—How long is France to be permitted to hold up the reconstruction of Europe by her desire to dominate the situation with her soldiers? This is the question which every other power in attendance at the Genoa Conference now is asking privately, but with bitter emphasis.

The disarmament question was up again today and like Banquo's ghost it will not down, the Germans and Russians both declaring themselves in favor of utter abolition of armies, the Russian delegate, M. Chicherin, being especially emphatic.

"We have no desire for military aggression," he said, "although we are being more or less disturbed by the Poles at this moment concentrating armies against us."

(Reuter's Service)

Genoa, May 3.—Much surprise was occasioned at the prolonged sitting last evening of the sub-commission, dealing with the draft of the allied memorandum to the Russians, when, all the difficulties believed to be surmounted, M Barrere, at the last moment, withheld his approval pending M. Barthou's instructions from Paris.

Mr. Lloyd George expressed surprise because M. Barthou had not said anything about it when conversing with him before leaving. M. Barrere explained that instructions had only just arrived.

The Commission resumed the sitting later and passed the redrafted articles except the seventh, to which the French moved an amendment. Mr. Lloyd George was of the opinion that this amendment made the difference between settlement and no settlement, nevertheless he was willing to accept it provided that the document was no longer delayed. M. Barrere apologetically explained that he was unable to act without authority from Paris. Mr. Lloyd George thereupon accepted the amendment, and suggested that the French reserve their final approval.

Paris, May 4.—The Cabinet has decided that France shall support Belgium at the Genoa Conference.

The press criticise the British attitude in connection with the debated arrangements with regard to the restitution of Russian property of foreigners.

Genoa, May 4.—The Russian reply to the Allied memorandum is not expected for several days.

M. Chicherin has protested against the exclusion of the Russians from the Economic Commission's Labor Committee.

Genoa, May 2 (delayed).—At the meeting of the economic Commission today Germany advocated a general European most favored nation agreement, especially with regard to Custom's tariffs.

The Japanese delegates opposed discriminating treatment with regard to custom's tariffs, and stated that they preferred dealing with goods, irrespective of their origin, destination, and means of conveyance.

The Germans also condemned the system of discriminating tariffs.

The Japanese delegates advocated the policy of the open-door on the lines of the Chinese agreement at Washington but urged the recognition of existing treaties and throughout opposed all restrictions on imports and exports. They whole-heartedly supported the most liberal interpretation of the most-favored nation clause.

Paris, May 4.—France's decision to support the Belgian attitude on the Russian question was reached by the Cabinet presided over by M. Poincare, who, on behalf of the whole ministry, thanked M. Barthou for the manner in which he had represented the French interests.

Peking's Curio Dealers Hardest Hit By The War

BY BERT L. KUHN
(Staff Correspondent of The China Press)

Peking, April 30.—The ricshas are still running in Peking. There is dancing nightly in the hotels. The diplomatic quarter goes about its business just as quietly and unexcitedly as at any other period during its existence. Tourists—such few as there are—still wander about adoringly in the Forbidden City and brave hot suns and choking dust to make their way to the Temple of Heaven. Government departments function as complacently and leisurely as ever. The more humble among the Chinese population continue to flock in herds and droves to the daily fairs which make this period of the month a continuous joy-fest to them. The only residents of the city who really sense the smothering influence of the civil war are the curio dealers. They are seriously affected. And their price scales are undergoing downward revisions almost daily.

All of this is emphasised here to give lie to a widely asserted collection of rumors which Peking hears have gained credence in many parts of China—rumors which would have their hearers believe that a bloody war is going on now on the sand-swept plains which are Peking's outermost suburbs, that Fengtien troops have flooded the city and pursue their domineering careers along its avenues and byways in total disregard of the rights of residents, that the government is in a turmoil of almost unintermittent panics, and that foreign residents are making preparations remindful of those which preceded the fateful days of 1900.

TRYING TO KEEP CALM

It is not that Peking is apathetic. If there is to be war in North China both foreign and Chinese residents of the city will be vitally interested. But there is no need for borrowing trouble by lending willing ear to every wild report which some fantastic imagination has seen fit to create.

There is no class in Peking today that is not interested in the trend which events are taking. Newspapers, both foreign and Chinese, are read avidly—and then discounted a full ninety percent. Everyone feels the limitations which have, in recent days, been imposed upon the capital. Particularly is this true of the tourists, who, while they are not handicapped in their wanderings about in search of Peking's manifold art treasures, are definitely made to realise that events of an extraordinary character are impending because of the almost complete tie-up in transportation facilities.

Trains to Tientsin are now operating on a fairly definite schedule, although the incoming through trains from Mukden are more than likely to be delayed several hours because of the heavy movements of troops from the Manchurian provinces. But once in Tientsin, the tourist is faced with the alternative either of remaining there for some time or returning to Peking, for passenger accommodations by boat out of Tientsin are heavily booked for weeks in advence.

BUSINESS FEELS BLIGHT

Such business as there is in Peking has also felt the blight. Incoming guests at the big foreign hotels are now confined to only one or two daily. The curio dealers aforementioned are decidedly in a quandary as to how to dispose of big stocks prepared for spring and summer tourists. Both foreign and Chinese dealers in any but essential commodities can find practically no markets for their wares.

To add to the general business stagnancy has come the usual tendency to fight shy of any currency except such as is guaranteed by banks within the Legation quarter. Notes of the native banks, including the Bank of Communication and the Bank of China, are very difficult to dispose of, and in bargaining with the smaller Chinese merchants, Yuan Shih-kai dollars are great deal more persuasive than even foreign bank notes. This condition has had the quite natural result of cutting down considerably the volume of trade.

NO THOUGHT OF DISORDER

But Peking, though it will undoubtedly suffer a financial loss, has no thought of disorder within the city walls, even though the present situation develops into a desperate struggle and armed conflict is waged almost within sight of the city. Measures have already been taken which should guarantee the maintenance of order in almost any eventuality, and full confidence is felt that both sides in the impending war will respect the terms laid down in the protocol of 1900 and maintain an unbroken line of communication between Peking and the sea.

Appeals that Peking be held neutral territory in the event of actual warfare have gone forth to both the Chihli and Fengtien factions from responsible officials, and it is believed that these will be heeded, as no strategical advantage could accrue to either party by capture of the capital itself, and any assault would be almost certain to provoke the wrath of the foreign governments against the offending parties. In addition, the police of the city are being heavily recruited, and all plans have been made to shut the gates to both sides provided the conflict comes uncomfortably close.

RUMOR MONGERS

The chief source of possible trouble within Peking itself, lies in the effect which the general circulation of wild rumors may have on the lower classes of the Chinese population. Efforts to offset the effects of these undoubtedly false reports have already been made. In a formal proclamation to residents of the Metropolitan District, the Taoyin of Peking has declared that any rumor-mongers found disturbing the peace and order of the general public will be severely dealt with.

In addition to the dispatch of the the U. S. S. Huron to Chinwangtao, which action, it is felt here, was taken with an eye to the impending disturbances, preparations are being made by the foreign powers to augment their armed forces in Peking proper. One hundred and seventy-five American marines are expected to arrive at the American Legation before the end of the week. Tents have been erected for them in the compound of the Guard. Seventy-five British soldiers are also reported to have been added to the British Legation Guard.

There has been some talk of bringing in foreign missionaries and others who are in the zone of warfare, but no action has been taken along this line as yet, and it is not felt that any will be necessary.

In the main, Peking feels itself in the position of a spectator rather than a participant, and as long as this attitude is maintained, there is not likely to be any difficulty within the city itself.

Tuchun Chi Repeats Neutrality Promise

Tuchun Chi Shih-yuen of Nanking has once more professed his neutrality in the internecine war raging in the North. In an answer to the members of the Kiangsu Provincial Assembly Wednesday the Nanking Tuchun declared that his attitude is to preserve peace, protect the people in his jurisdiction, and to maintain friendship with neighboring provinces, and that he will never change his attitude, according to the Chinese press.

The Chinese press also reports that Tuchun Lu Yung-hsiang of Hangchow has one of his most dependable lieutenants, Chen Loh-san, commander of the Fourth division, at Loongwha now, advising General Ho Feng-lin, Military Governor of Sungkiang and Shanghai.

Turko-Italian Pact Debated In British House

(Reuter's Service)

London, May 3.—In the House of Commons today, replying to Mr. T. P. O'Connor, Mr. Austen Chamberlain said that Italy had informed the British Government on April 24 that they had concluded an agreement with the Constantinople Government.

The latter undertook to examine favorably the Italian applications for certain Railway, Mine and Public Works concessions in Asia Minor, but Italy, he said, had given formal assurances that the agreement contained no counter-concessions or undertakings on their part, and promised to communicate the text as soon as possible.

Mr. Chamberlain said that the British Government had been informed at the time of the Paris Conference that the Turkish Government had made certain proposals to Italy and that the British Government had advised Italy to proceed with the utmost caution, but, he said, the Government was not aware that an agreement was about to be concluded and it was not informed with regard to subsequent negotiations.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

May 4, 1922

Spot and forward bar silver were unchanged in London yesterday.

The New York price advanced to 68⅞ cents, and the London-New York cross rate to 443¾.

The only change in the official quotations here today was a rise in the Franc rate to 820.

Our market was again very firm throughout the day, with sellers of Sterling in the early part of the morning at 3-6 for May-June, deliveries, and of Gold Dollars at 77¾ for the same deliveries.

In the afternoon rates were firmer still, with sellers of Sterling at 76⅛ for any delivery to July, and of Gold Dollars at 78 for May-June and 77⅞ for July.

There were buyers of Gold Dollars at 77¾ for June-July.

There were again a few Franc bills offering today, and speculators were sellers of T-T, with banks unwilling buyers.

The Continent sold silver in London yesterday and India bought.

The market there, as well as in New York, is reported as firm.

Coal Market

In their fortnightly coal market report, Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows:

JAPAN COAL

This market has shown a little more "life" since we last wrote and a certain amount of new business has been done by native dealers during the past fortnight at market prices, principally owing to the recent hardening of exchange which acts more in favor of would-be purchasers.

FUSHUN COAL

No change.

FUCHUNG ANTHRACITE

Stocks on the spot are practically exhausted and the political situation makes the question of future supplies very uncertain.

KAIPING COAL

Hostilities in the North have had considerable effect on the deliveries at Chinwangtao owing to the shortage of trucks for commercial purposes. At the present time sufficient coal is coming through to maintain contracts, but insufficient quantities to supply native dealers or to accumulate any stocks. It is impossible to say how long this situation will last or whether conditions will improve or get worse. In the meantime the market remains quite firm.

Freight Market

In their freight market report, Messrs. Wheelock and Company write as follows:

The condition of our export markets from China to Europe and-or America is identical and the only way they can both be described as is "dead!" as cargo is, if anything, scarcer than hitherto, owing, no doubt, to the outbreak of hostilities up North and the unsettled state of the country generally which is interfering with transport and communications from all parts of the interior.

COASTWISE

The demand from the North is showing signs of falling off for which, no doubt, the outbreak of hostilities around Peking is responsible and he would be a brave man indeed who would dare to foretell what these are likely to lead to or how long they are likely to last! In the meanwhile, the trade of the country will have to suffer owing to the interruption of communications in all directions.

A Survey Of The Religious, Political And Economic Situation In China

HUNAN

NOTE: THE CHINA PRESS has asked a number of the delegates to the National Christian Conference now in session in Shanghai to prepare special articles on the religious, political and economic situations in their provinces. The delegates here represent every section of the country. This survey, we hope, will prove of special value both here and abroad. Later we plan to reprint these articles in pamphlet form. The first received is by.

DR. EDWARD HUME (Hunan)

ON January 1, 1922, the Province of Hunan adopted its new constitution, at the very beginning of which stands a paragraph saying that Hunan is a self-governing province in the Republic of China. It is in many ways a remarkable document. Prepared by the best legal thinkers in Hunan, and with counsel from men of experience such as Dr. C. T. Wang, it is a step in the direction which citizens in the southern half of China think necessary; that is, the formation of a group of independent states, held together as a strong federation, to function in this semi-detached manner until such time as a strong central government can be established once more.

The independence of Hunan is, of course, not absolute. The national facilities in postal and telegraphic service continue as before. The Customs and Salt Revenue services function as usual. Communication between the national boards of education, etc, and the provincial boards, still continues to a certain extent. When foreign affairs are under consideration, the sense of fellow ship with the rest of China is very strong. In matters of government, however, Hunan feels itsel entirely able to administer its own territory; and entirely justified in seeking to collect and use its own revenues.

Governor Chao Heng-ti, carrying the double role of Civil Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Army, has held office surprisingly long. Never as popular as Tan Yen-kai, whom he aided in ousting from the governorship in November 1920, he has managed to keep Hunan out of the military zone since September 1921. Through the past few months he has been approached, now by the representatives of Sun Yat-sen and now by those of Wu Pei-fu; and the public has never known which way he would swing.

Hunan would naturally side with the South; but there has been of late a considerable feeling that Sun's reported alliance with Chang of Mukden might bring repeated military strife into the province; and Governor Chao has managed with considerable skill to avoid the appearance of partiality to either side.

The province is, of course, sick of militarism. Chang Ching-yao and his troops over-ran the northern part of the province from the Spring of 1918 onwards for a couple of years; the summer of 1921 saw another clash in the north between Hunan troops and the army of Wu Pei-fu, which left Yochow and some distance south of it still in the hands of northern troops; so that Hunan has prayed for a period of peace, deserving it. It was this clash that turned the sympathy of Hunan away from General Wu, who had previously been regarded as a dependable friend.

On September 3, 1921, a parley was arranged on board a British gunboat at Yochow between General Wu and Governor Chao, and well-defined areas of military control were laid down. Militarism has by no means left the boundaries of the province, as the traveler will find for himself if he goes from Wuchang to Changsha by rail without adequate knowledge of the line. And the soldiers of the contending forces, poorly paid, maltreat the population in every district they occupy.

In spite of the new constitution, Hunan is unstable politically. The present war in the north cannot fail to affect the situation. On its issues will depend whether Hunan is to press forward to governmental strength or to relapse into further periods of vacillation.

Economic Conditions: Add to the military over-running of the province the serious famine conditions that have prevailed in a majority of the 75 hsiens since the summer of 1921, and it will be easy to appreciate how depressed Hunan is today. Perhaps the only large daily export is coal; and even the trainloads of this commodity that leave Changsha for Hankow daily are interfered with whenever soldiers have to be moved or any other cause blocks the railroad. The mines of the province are largely standing idle. The antimony boom during the war seems like a distant dream, and the great furnaces that refined this ore are cold. Lead refining is still carried on at Changsha, but at a constant loss. Business men who were constantly in evidence in public matters now seldom appear, and many of them have moved to Shanghai and Hankow for new ventures in commerce. The rice crops of 1922 all over the province must be fruitful, otherwise one of China's great rice-growing areas will be a liability on the national treasury of philanthropy. It has been included all this winter in the group of suffering provinces.

And yet the mineral deposits are as wonderful as ever. The soil is no less fertile. The wood-oil tree and forests of other sorts are still there. A Government officer said only a fortnight ago that if Hunan could have a settled government for but five years together with a vigorous, careful and honest government for that length of time, not only would all its outstanding obligations be easily paid off, but it would be possible to put it on a basis of almost permanent financial independence.

The provincial government very naturally shows the effect of these depressed conditions. It has simply handed the question of education over to a committee of business men who are entrusted with the duty of collecting certain salt transport taxes. Its employes in one department after another strike, receive a temporary allowance, and then go on in the old uncertainty. The government has not for many years been so constantly on the brink of insolvency.

Foreign firms have also felt the depression. The Asia Bank has been obliged to close its Changsha branch after nearly three years of service. For months the directors considered keeping an agency in the city, but even this thought has had to be given up. The British and Japanese steamship lines have kept up their sailings to Hankow, but their trade has been very slack. German firms are recovering some of their former prestige in dyes and ores, but have had to be very generous with credits and very willing to work on small margins.

Thus it will be seen that Hunan, once famous for its resources, is passing through a period of serious economic depression.

Religious Conditions: Very often in history it has been the very insecurity of political and economic conditions that has made men find their strength and hope renewed by religious activity; and Hunan would seem to be ready for just such renewal.

The famine of the past winter has given the missionaries a very large opportunity for philanthropic service, the kind of Christianity that grips men's attention. Far to the west in Huang Hsien, to the northeast in Liang Hsiang and to the south in Yungchow, Christian workers, both Chinese and foreign, Roman Catholic as well as Protestant, have been busy with relief measures. And with the furnishing of food has gone hand in hand the medical treatment in many cases that has served as a further means of making practical Christianity known to the people.

On the part of the several branches of the Christian church working in Hunan there has been a great forward movement both in strengthening within and in co-operation. The Chinese Independent Church has not grown particularly strong as yet, largely because the foreign missionary worker has been wise enough to give a great measure of leadership and initiative to the Chinese. Particularly in the larger cities, churches are now being organised with their own Chinese pastors and the movement for self-support and self-government is advancing steadily. During the past winter Changsha has had visits from evangelists such as Rev. Shen Wen-ching and Rev. J. Goforth; and from Christian lecturers such as Dr. Henry Hodgkin; and the welcome given to their message by non-Christian as well as Christian audiences has shown how free from opposition the Hunan public has been. On the other hand, it is true that the recent agitation by the anti-Christian society has been felt, especially in Changsha. Friendly welcoming of public discussion and continued emphasis on a living Christianity have made the attacks lose much of their asperity.

The Christian Church in Hunan has become thoroughly established. It is becoming indigenous, is starting in local missionary endeavor and is recognised as a force in the life of the province.

No more striking evidence of the new vigor of the Christian movement is at hand than the development of evangelistic bands under the direction of the Hunan Bible Institute. Nine groups of men, each consisting of a leader and twelve others, 117 in all, are trained in the Bible Institute and then sent out for work in Hunan, Kwangsi and Kiangsi. In the period between October 1920 and June 1921 these workers visited 200,000 homes; and their labors resulted in the formation of over 30 independent Churches in the area mentioned.

Dr. Mott Tells Of Christianity's Tasks

alleled intellectual and spiritua hunger of young men and young women. Thus the anti-Christian movement which has broken ou in different parts of China is no without its great advantage. One need only contrast the opportunity it presents with the close door which the Christian worker of China a generation ago confronted when they gave prayerfu thought to reaching the literati.

"The Christian movement has vaster oppoortunity than ever if we do not act merely as spectators of this intellectual awakening but rather get into the very middle of the remarkable stream and seek to purify and to direct it. We believe and know that we have a Gospel which can win and guide this new thought life. Christ came not only to win men's hearts by His great sacrifice, but also to persuade their minds by His truth. He flung out the most satisfying challenge to inquiring men of every generation, 'Learn of Me.' In presenting Himself as the Truth, He made possible a full and satisfying answer to the most penetrating question of the New Thought Movement of every land, an answer reasonable, vital and self-evidencing.

INDIGENOUS CHURCH RISES

"The world-wide Christian movement has a new and wondrous advantage in the fact that new and truly indigenous churches are rising up in land after land which did not have them. In no area is this more evident than in China. In my four previous visits to this land, in countless interviews, I found missionaries burdened in thought and prayer with reference to the development of what they call a self-directing, self-supporting and self-propagating Chinese Christian Church. Coming back today and mingling with Christian leaders, young and old, sitting at their feet in groups and larger conferences, and observing their leadership in this great gathering, and in so many other relationships, I am profoundly impressed with the fact that prayer has been answered. I find everywhere missionaries and discerning travelers rejoicing in the almost unbelievable results of the seed-sowing, watering—at times with tears—and patient nurturing of long and full years. The Chinese Christian Church has unmistakably developed into a large measure of self-consciousness. To some it may seem like exaggeration, but am I mistaken when I express the conviction that in this land today, as well as in many another field of Asia, we have truly indigenous churches of such vitality, and therefore of such propagating power, that were Christianity to die out in Europe or America it would spread from these shores to those Continents? Such new, vital forces constitute in themselves a tremendous added advantage. We begin to realise how great this advantage is not only to lands like China, but also to the world-wide program of the Christian faith, when we try to imagine these rising churches blotted out, or when we try to put ourselves back where we were a generation or even half a generation ago.

DRAWING TOGETHER

"The drawing together these days of the Christian forces in all parts of the world constitutes in itself a supremely great advantage. Cardinal Gibbons, the great Roman Catholic ecclesiastic who died in America not many months ago, maintained that the Church of Rome is the only Church which knows her own mind. Without doubt that great communion does know its own mind in the sense of having a common mind. This is true not only geographically, but in a very marked sense chronologically. We must, however, take issue with this leader as we remind ourselves of what in so many ways is more remarkable, and that is that the all too divided forces of Protestantism even without formal organisation and collusion in its work across the breadth of the world present so many striking evidences not only of common convictions, but also of common objectives and plans. It is an interesting fact that the first six Christian conferences held after the war were those of bodies of the Protestant communion, and that all but one of these included leaders of the Churches of both sides of the war as well as of neutral countries.

"The Christian forces concerned with world evangelisation and Christianisation have been drawing together increasingly, one might almost say at a geometrical rate, decade by decade throughout the past thirty years. The developments of the past ten years have been truly remarkable. Telling illustrations are observable in almost every land, large and small. The most notable recent step was the formation last October at Lake Mohonk of the International Missionary Council which unites for the first time the Protestant Missionary forces of all nations, including the rising churches of non-Christian lands. Beside this world-wide union there are now to be found in nearly all of the principal countries of the Orient and Occident as well as in Latin America and Africa, national organisations for the co-ordination of the various activities of the Christian Church.

LAUDS WORK OF C. C. C.

"Let me speak a word of appreciation regarding the China Continuation Committee. I understand this is now to give way to some permanent organisation which will represent officially the entire Christian movement in China. Viewing the work of this Committee from a distance one has been impressed by its able and representative committee, by its efficient and devoted staff of executive officers, by the splendid example of the collaboration of the Chinese Christian workers with their colleagues from other lands, by its annual meetings and the work of its varied commissions, and above all by the long list of solid achievements which may be placed to its credit. If we measure the success of an organisation not alone by the number of things it accomplishes but by the difficulties encountered and surmounted in the doing of these things, then this organisation is indeed worthy of high praise.

"I notice that the arguments which are being adduced in favor of your new and permanent organisation are those which have likewise done so much to facilitate the arriving at a common mind, corporate policy and concerted action in the case of similar bodies in other fields. The vast magnitude and the complex and baffling difficulties of the tasks confronting the Christian Church in a field like China are such as to make it seem like an idle dream to think of accomplishing them without true unity and co-operation. The inevitably great cost of the Christian program coupled with the impoverished economic condition of the world at the present time accentuates the desirability of avoiding all possible waste and duplication of effort through failure to plan and work together wherever this is possible without compromising vital principle. The urgency of the situation in every field makes it absolutely necessary that Christians increasingly think and act together. It is a startling reflection that the Christian cause may fail in certain fields simply through failure to combine its forces.

NEED LARGER UNITY

"To give full-orbed expression to the wondrous message and power of Christ we are coming to see in all lands the necessity of a larger unity. Moreover, on the authority of Christ, His followers must be of one mind if they are to furnish a convincing apologetic to an unbelieving world. The early Christians made it clear that the Christian Church brought men into a fellowship which included Christians of every name, and this served to give it world-conquering power. My wide contacts with the rising generation of those who tomorrow are to be leaders of the churches in this and other lands has convinced me that their minds are made up on this point not only of the desirability but of the necessity of their increasingly planning and working together. We surely see therefore the hand of God in the drawing together of the Christian forces near and far at the very moment when they are called upon to face immeasurably greater opportunities and difficulties. How disadvantageous the position of the world wide Christian movement would be were its leaders and members today just at the point of beginning to study the problem of co-operation and to make initial experiments in this direction.

"What an advantage the world-wide Christian movement has when we remind ourselves that the hour of great fruition has come. This is due to the working of God's absolutely unvaryin laws. There are certain divine laws and processes the working of which make possible and, under certain conditions, inevitable the great harvests. Among these are the law of sowing and reaping, the law of the judgment of God, the law of Christlik living, the law of intercession, and the law of sacrifice.

MUST GATHER HARVEST

"In vain, however, do we sow even the most vital and highly productive seed of the Kingdom and water it with ceaseless labors and with tears unless at the time of ripening of the harvest we go forth with sickles to reap. In vain the stern working of God's almighty judgments among the nations such as we have had on an unprecedented scale in the recent tragic years unless as Christian leaders we recognise that this affords a time for the inhabitants of the earth to learn righteousness and press the advantage thus afforded. In vain the rapidly multiplying number of Christ's true disciples in every land unless these present-day evidences of the reality and sufficiency of the work of the living Christ are brought to bear in countless daily contacts to help reveal Christ to the multitudes who know not the Way, the Truth and the Life. In vain do we heed the word of our Lord and Master that ve knock and it shall be opened unto us, unless as the doors swing ajar to faithful intercession we pass through these doors with faith and the spirit of true Christian adventure. In vain the world-wide operation of the law of sacrifice unless we take to heart and seek earnestly to enter into the heritage prepared by the working of the productive principle enunciated by our Lord, 'Except a grain of corn fall into the ground and die, it abideth by itself alone; but if it die it bringest forth much fruit.' I find in my travels that discerning Christians everywhere believe that we are on the threshold of unexampled ingatherings into the Kingdom of our Lord as a result of these irresistible causes.

CALL FOR THOROUGHNESS

"What notes should be sounded out by the members of a Conference like this in face of the great advantages now enjoyed by the world-wide Christian movement? Without doubt one note which needs to be sounded with great distinctness in all parts of the Christian enterprise is the note of thoroughness. In face of such vast and multiform opportunities, and working under the spell of such urgency, a principal peril would be that of superficiality. Here, as in other fields of human endeavor, we may well examine ourselves with the haunting question as to whether the discipline of our lives, the culture of our souls, and the thoroughness of our thought processes are such as to enable us to bear the strain, to discover the best way and therefore to do an enduring and highly multiplying work.

"Likewise we should sound out the note of faith. Faith in one another—we of the East and of the West, we of groups of different religious outlook. Faith in God. We rise in our Churches week by week and make the great confession, 'I believe in God the Father Almighty.' Do we? Do our attainments in character and achievements in work impress others that we are in league with the living Christ with Whom resides all power? Faith that God will use us, not only singly but collectively in ushering in the new day prepared by the working of His mighty and unerring laws.

"How essential it is also that each one of us, not so much by word as by life, sound the note of immanency. This is what the Psalmist had in mind when he said, 'The Lord is at my right hand.' This is the central fact of our faith—the Incarnation. Is not the design of God today, as ever, to communicate Himself inwardly to men—to clothe Himself with men? May the mighty and blessed logic of it all continue to break upon us, that if He is actually with us, then there can be such thing in our work as loneliness discouragement, defeat, failure, naturalism, unproductivity.

THE TIDE RISING

"The present is the time of times for all true disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ to sound out the note of immediacy. Is not this what Christ had in mind when He said, 'I must work the works of Him that sent Me while it is day, for the night cometh and no man can work.' The very stuff of which opportunity is made is that it is fleeting. I cannot well express my sense of the extreme urgency of the present situation in China as I compare it with that of other lands which I have visited or with what I found in this land on previous visits. Unless I am mistaken the present is not only the time of rising tide but a time when the tide is rapidly drawing to the crest. In fact, at places it seems to be overleaping the banks. It is always wise to take advantage of a rising tide. Then we may accomplish more in a short time than in a long, weary, waiting period when the tide is falling. The Christian movement in China today has an opportunity like unto the one which it had in Japan in the late eighties. It is the chance of the ages. Let us heed the Arab proverb, 'The dawn does not come twice to waken man.' 'The work which generations might have done must crowd the hour of setting sun.'

Japanese Troops 327 Miles Inland, Says Chita Report

(Dalta News Agency)

Chita, April 25.—The communique of the People's Revolutionary Army Headquarters states that in the direction of the Ussuri Railway the Russian troops have left station Donskaya, about 327 miles from Vladivostok, which has been occupied by the Japanese.

In the direction of Auunchino the Japanese have occupied the villages of Yakovlevka, Chernishevka and Lubianka.

According to a report, the partisans of the Maritime Province have approached Nikolaievsk on the Amur River, cutting off the telegraphic and postal relations with Vladivostok.

Harding Working On Plan To End Coal Strike Permanently

(Chung Mei Service)

Washington, May 3.—President Harding has announced that the Government was working out a plan to end the coal strike permanently, and settle all the troubles of the industry. This plan will soon be submitted to the operators and the miners. The details are not disclosed, but federal supervision is not contemplated.

Plan Consortium To Reconstruct Europe

(Reuter's Service)

Genoa, May 3.—Lord Inverforth, interviewed by Reuter's correspondent before leaving for London, stated that he was satisfied with the work accomplished for the formation of an international consortium with a capital of £20,000,000 to assist any country in Europe requiring aid for economic reconstruction. He said that in addition to the five countries constituting the original committee, eight others, including Canada with £1,000,000 and Japan with from £500,000 to £1,000,000 would furnish the capital of the consortium as a purely business concern, though the capital was guaranteed by the respective governments.

It is worthy of note that Belgium was mentioned earlier as a member of the original committee.

State Funeral For Japanese Victim

(Dalta News Agency)

Chita, April 25.—A solemn funeral of the assistant chief of staff of a brigade, Vasilieff, who was alleged to have been treacherously killed by the Japanese at Sviagino on April 2, has been held in Habarovsk. The procession was joined by the garrison of Habarovsk and many thousands of the population.

Speeches were delivered, emphasising the falsity and insincerity of the policy of Japanese militarists. The speakers pointed out that the struggle for the independence of Russian people claimed a toll of many lives but the ties of the ranks of the Russian toiling masses were thus drawn closer together.

Ask Embargo On Light Weight Coppers

The Shanghai Exchange Guild has addressed a telegram to Mr. Wang Hu, Civil Governor of Kiangsu, petitioning him to put an embargo on the importation of light weight copper coins. The petition points out that one dollar worth of copper is sufficient to produce 200 of such coins and a number may be made greater when the mineral used is not confined to pure copper.

Colorado Bank Robbers Get $12,000

(China Press Service)

Denver, May 3.—Bandits practically wrecked the First National Bank building at Lafayette nearby, with nine shots of nitroglycerine. They escaped with $12,000.

Jewel Robbery Case Almost Cleared Up

The French police have announced that as soon as they effect the arrest of one more man the Kalee Hotel jewel robbery case will be completely cleared up. Eight men have already been arrested in connection with the case, and those held will be tried in the French Mixed Court as soon as the ninth man believed to have been implicated, is arrested.

JAPAN'S TRADE

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, May 3.—The Finance Department announces that for the month of April, Japan's foreign trade amounted to Y129,146,000 in exports and Y185,952,000 in imports, the balance being Y56,806,000 in favor of imports.

FILIPINOS WANT NO COASTWISE SHIPPING LAWS

Favor American Merchantmen; Desire Freedom Of Using Other Flags At Will

(China Press Service)

Washington, May 3.—Vincente Villamor, Director of the Philippine American Chamber of Commerce, appearing in a joint Congressional hearing on the ship subsidy bill, opposed the proposed extension of the coastwise regulations to the Philippines.

He declared that the proposal is in line with the movement to make the Philippines a "permanent and integral part of the United States."

Villamor said "We want the American merchant marine to dominate the Pacific but we want to be permitted to patronise the American ships voluntarily."

Filipino Official Scores Countrymen

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, April 22.—Only fifteen percent of the domestic and foreign trade of the Philippines is in the hands of Filipinos, according to Collector Trinidad of the Bureau of Internal Revenue, who recently criticised severely the tendency of young Filipinos to seek professional careers instead of going into business.

Seventy thousand Filipino citizens, many of them of Chinese origin, are engaged in business, whereas the foreigners and Americans number about 15,000. The latter, however, control 85 percent of the total business of the Philippines.

Manila Wants New Routing For Ships

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, April 22.—Attempts by various commercial and official bodies in the Philippines are being made to secure the routing of cargoes from Philippine ports through Manila instead of through Hongkong. At present much of the outbound shipping from the islands is carried direct from Philippine ports to Hongkong, where it is transhipped. Local interests hope to make Manila the transhipping point instead.

Much of the difficulty in routing cargoes through Manila is due to the fact that rates on inter-island lines are extremely high. The freight rates on some cargoes from the southern Philippines to Manila are said to exceed the charges on the same cargo from Manila to New York. It is hoped by merchants here that the inter-island rates will be readjusted.

TOKIO CABINET

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, May 3.—At 3 o'clock today an extraordinary Cabinet meeting was held at the residence of Premier Takahashi. Though it was orginally prearranged to deliberate upon the question of reconstructing the Cabinet in succession to yesterday's meeting, unexpectedly strong opposition developed on the part of Messrs. Nakahashi, Minister of Education, and Motoda, Minister of Railways, who are against the reconstruction of the Cabinet.

It has been decided to postpone the deliberation upon the Cabinet reconstruction question, on the score that should the intended reconstruction be carried through without obtaining full understanding on the part of all Cabinet Ministers, there would be a split in the Seiyukai Party.

SLAP FOR CAILLAUX

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, May 3.—M. Caillaux, the former Premier, was recently elected Chairman of the Agricultural Committee of Mamers. The Prefect of Sarthe annulled the election and M. Caillaux appealed to the Council of State, which ruled that Agricultural Committees were public bodies and that M. Caillaux was precluded from public office.
